Information about broadband speeds

- vTelecom ADSL plans provide maximum download speeds up to 20Mbps to eligible customers in selected areas (ADSL2+) and up to 8Mbps in many other areas (ADSL) but average speeds will be lower.
- Actual speeds vary due to a number of factors such as your distance from an exchange, the network connecting the exchange, your equipment and software and internet traffic.
- Devices connected by Wi-Fi may experience slower speeds than those connected by Ethernet cable.

CRITICAL INFORMATION SUMMARYHOME BUNDLE-ZONE 2 & 3*PLAN 110*Information about the service:*Fair Go Policy

Because VTELECOM AUSTRALIA aims to protect all its clients as they enjoy our top quality service, we implement a Fair Go Policy and the following applies to all subscribers:

- Clients must use the Landline and Broadband Plans, including Bundle Plans, in accordance to the stated limit on the subscription. VTELECOM may suspend or cancel the service to subscribers who exceeds limit or use the service excessively such that services provided to other customers are already affected.

OTHER INFORMATIONBILLING

The pricing in this Critical Information Summary are for the full billing cycle but your first bill may include pro rata charges for part of the month if you have started a plan part way through a billing period. Refer to the "Important information about your first bill" section below for more information.

• IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR FIRST BILL

When you commence a plan or change your plan part way through a billing period, your first bill will include your minimum monthly charge in advance. It will also include a proportion of your minimum monthly charge based on the number of days left in the billing period.

• EMAIL BILLING

VTELECOM is committed to reducing our environmental footprint, and therefore email billing is our default method of billing. Paper bill may be received as an option for an additional $4.00 inclusive of GST. To opt for paper billing, please call 1800-VTELECOM.

We are dedicated to customer service excellence.
